

Georgie Award Winners

Every year, over 700 industry leaders come together at the Canadian Home Builders Association, Georgie Awards show in Vancouver's Westin Bayshore Resort & Marina to recognize and honour the highest calibre of performance in BC's residential home building industry.

Gold winners of the 2008 Georgie Awards, Dustay Construction has been chosen as a winner again by a panel of judges for the prestigious 2009 Georgie Award, in the category of "Best Single Family Detached Custom Home" under 2000 sq. ft.

"These awards honor the best that BC's building industry has to offer in residential construction," shared by Gordon Campbell, Premier of BC. "These awards also reflect the enormous contribution that BC's home builders make to our provincial economy."

The home was built for the Duke family at the Osprey Landing subdivision south of Wardner, and is referred to as "The Duke Retreat".

For over 20 years Dustay has been creating exceptional living experiences for their clients through the development of single family homes with the owner's needs & lifestyle in mind.

Owners Rocko and Denise Potorti attribute their success in the home building industry to quality material, excellent sub-trades and a keen eye for detail.

They work very closely with their clients, ensuring each aspect of design meets the customer's needs, budget and occupancy dates.

Over the years they have kept that same vision and focus of customer satisfaction. They are proud to be known for their quality, expertise and integrity.

Announcement of the 2009 Georgie Award Winners was made in Vancouver March 13th, 2010.
